

2022

1. Research tasks of SGH staff
	Research task manager	Research task topic
2022 tasks
1	dr Łukasz Kryśkiewicz	Dynamics of market structures
2	dr hab. Eliza Przeździecka	Poland and the world in the era of slowbalisation
3	prof. dr hab. Marzanna Witek-Hajduk	Digital platforms in international business: strategic and consumer perspectives
4	dr hab. Izabela Kowalik	Marketing capabilities of small and medium-sized exporters: determinants and effects
5	dr hab. Ewa Lisowska	International competitiveness of enterprises – stage III
6	dr Małgorzata Mikita	Financial system and risks
7	dr hab. Adam A. Ambroziak	Poland in the European Union
8	prof. dr hab. Leokadia Oręziak	Conditions for financing from the general budget of the European Union and other EU sources, and challenges posed by the evolution of budgetary and monetary policies of EU member states
9	dr hab. Ewa Dzedzic	Trends in the tourism market
10	dr hab. Tomasz Dołęgowski	International competitiveness and the concept of the common good in the 21st-century economy. Philosophical, theoretical and empirical dimensions
11	dr hab. Alina Szypulewska-Porczyńska	Contemporary challenges for monetary and fiscal policy
12	dr Przemysław Biskup	Revision of the European Green Deal under crisis conditions
13	dr Anna Dzienis	Selected economic issues and challenges during the post-pandemic recovery of the world economy
14	dr Katarzyna Kamińska	Economic policy in an unstable environment – dilemmas and challenges: Polish and German perspectives
15	dr Aleksandra Szarek-Piaskowska	Challenges for the global economy at the beginning of the third decade of the 21st century

16	dr Piotr Maszczyk	Impact of unanticipated external shocks on the economic condition and institutional architecture of EU states
17	dr Adam Czerniak	Social, institutional and economic determinants of economic development in Poland
18	dr hab. Arkadiusz Kowalski	2023 Competitiveness Report. The importance of entrepreneurship in developing competitive advantages in Poland compared to the EU

Competition tasks

1	dr Marta Mackiewicz	The role of Polish cluster organisations in the transition towards a green economy
2	dr Sławomir Miklaszewicz	Impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on the development of digital finance in Poland
3	dr Marzenna Błaszczuk-Zawiła	Russia's invasion of Ukraine: selected implications for the world and the European Union, including Poland
4	dr Anna Maria Dzienis	Japan-EU cooperation in the development of hydrogen-based economy
5	dr Krystian Jaworski	Impact of the war in Ukraine on exchange rates and inflation in selected EU states
6	dr Anna Napiórkowska	Motivations for user engagement with NGOs through international crowdsourcing platforms
7	dr Aleksandra Szarek-Piaskowska	Economic integration as a factor increasing the share of high-technology goods in the exports of member states of regional integration groupings
8	dr hab. Ewelina Szczech-Pietkiewicz	Prospects for implementing the European Green Deal in the context of experiences of implementing previous EU multi-annual development strategies
9	dr hab. Anna Horodecka	Towards a collective approach to sustainable consumption: the case of Poland
10	dr Przemysław Biskup	Opportunities and risks to economic exchanges between Poland and the UK following the materialisation of Brexit and sanctions against Russia
11	dr Dawid Majcherek	Socio-economic determinants of the mental health level of economically active citizens living in the European Union states. A comparative analysis
12	dr Honorata Nyga-Łukaszewska	Quality of institutions and energy security vs. international competitiveness of energy exporters: the example of Norway and Russia